EVACUATE RUHR IN ONE YEAR

FRENCH AGREE TO MOVE OUT NEXT AUGUST

Long Controversy Over Allied Military Occupation of Germany Finally Settled--Signatures Assured.

AGREEMENTS ARE SIGNED.

LONDON, Aug. 16. — The German and allied delegates at a plenary session of the international conference tonight initialled the agreements on the execution of the Dawes plan.

(Associated Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The French and Germans finally have settled their long controversy over the military evacuation of the Ruhr by an exchange of letters today in which they agree to the principle that August 15 of next year be fixed as the final date when the French and Belgian troops must completely evacuate the Ruhr territory.

They have also agreed that a partial evacuation will begin on August 30 of this year when the foreign soldiers will leave Dortmund and the cities and places outside of the Ruhr which were not occupied in accordance with the terms of the treaty of Versailles.

The Belgians join with the French in the letters covering these points. Both the French and the Germans, in their letters, insist that they have not altered their opinions about the legal questions involved in the occupation of the Ruhr.

The French insist that the occupations were justified by the treaty of Versailles, while the Germans declare that the sanctions were illegal and voice the expectations that the evacuation will be finished earlier than next August.

Macdonald Prepares Letter.

Prime Minister Macdonald of Great Britain, is also preparing a letter in which he will deny charges that he coerced the Germans into acceptance of the French demand that the Ruhr occupation continue for one year longer. It is also expected that he will issue a statement, expressing the hope that the evacuation may be even speedier than the agreement provides. The French and Belgian prime ministers made a joint statement declaring as soon as the French troops left the Ruhr, in other words, that the military evacuation would be absolutely complete next August 15.

It is agreed further that on October 1, the French and Germans shall begin negotiations in Paris for commercial treaties. The agreement reached also provides that the French and Belgians shall not insist upon their nationals remaining on the German railways.

Settlement Assured.

No agreement has been reached as yet on the quantities of dyestuffs the Germans are to be required to deliver as reparations. This subject still is under discussion and will probably be settled before the plenary meeting of the international conference this evening.

American Ambassador Frank B. Kellogg, on departing from the council meeting, which was concluded at 1 o'clock, declared that the conference would end successfully tonight.

A member of the French delegation also stated that the agreement would be signed tonight.

To this Mr. Macdonald gave his approval thus bindin gthe British along with the French and the Germans to the absolute fulfillment of the agreement on condition that the Germans live up to the provisions of the Dawes plan.

Speedy preparations were being made for the plenary session of the international conference tonight when the complete memberships will be summoned and when the delegates will initial the agreement as to how the Dawes plan is to be executed. Many of the delegates are planning to leave London tonight.

No Order For Car Track Extension

The state railway commission has decided that it has no lawful jurisdiction or authority to order extensions of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway Co's. tracks into portions of Omaha where more service was desired. It finds that the company owns no franchise to occupy the streets where the extensions were proposed, and that a franchise could be granted only by the city.

The commission says it is willing to give the matter further consideration after the franchise question, now in litigation, is determined by the courts. It dismisses the complaints until then.

CORN PRICES MOVE HIGHER

Wild Market Fluctuations At Chicago, As Result Of Adverse Crop Reports, Push May Corn Quotations Up 5 Cents.

(Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. — Wild fluctuations in the corn market today resulted from continued unfavorable weather and from adverse crop reports. May corn scored a jump of 5 1-4 cents in some cases, touching as high as $1.21 1-2 bushel, compared with $1.16 1-4 at yesterday's finish, after a net gain yesterday of 5 7-8c.

Trading was of such an exciting character that simultaneous transactions at different places in the pit were as much as 3 1-2c apart. Estimates were current that owing to lack of summer weather this season, 20 per cent of the corn crop from Fort Dodge, Ia., to Chicago would never make merchantable corn.

Report From Nebraska.

Opening corn prices, which ranged from 1-2 to 5 1-4c higher, with December $1.17 to 1.19 and May $1.18 to 1.21 1-2, were followed by lightning changes, sometimes at the rate of a cent a minute. The market finally became fairly steady at 1 1-2 to 2 1-2c advance.

While the corn market was skyrocketing, unfavorable crop reports were pouring in. A trained observer, telegraphing from Norfolk, Neb., said corn fields were very uneven and great quantities of the corn was not yet in tassel. Much of this corn, he said, would fail to mature unless there was an unusually late fall.

Five Votes For Direct Primary Mailed To Pool

Five persons in Nebraska have already voted "yes" on the proposed constitutional amendment making the direct primary system permanent and providing for election of all state, county and local officers on a nonpolitical ballot, and have mailed their votes to Secretary of State Pool.

These votes, of course, cannot be counted, as the election does not come until November 4 and the ballots have not yet been made up or printed.

The persons who tried to vote by mail at thisearly date mistook copies of the state referendum pamphlet which the secretary of state mailed to them a few days ago for regular ballots, because on one page of the pamphlet there is a form showing the manner in which the proposition will appear on the ballot in November, with squares for voting "yes" or "no." In each instance a cross had been marked for the affirmative side of the proposition.

Two of the pamphlets were mailed back from Springfield, Sarpy county, by a man and his wife. Two more came from Wakefield, in Dixon county and the fifth was sent from Wellfleet, a town in Lincoln county. Secretary Pool declined to make the names public.

The referendum pamphlet is intended merely for the information of voters, to show them what the proposition is and how to mark their ballots for or against it. The persons who sent these in will have to vote again at the November election if they wanted to be counted.

FACE CHARGE IN NEBRASKA DEATH

SUICIDE THEORY DISPROVED BY MORS NEIGHBOR

Testimony Of Woman Living Under Apartment Where the Wealthy Divorcee Met Death, Reveals Two Men Fled From Building.

UNABLE TO DEFINITELY IDENTIFY KID M'COY

Newest Figure In Tangled Slaying Case Tells Of Being Awakened By Screams and Pleadings of Mrs. Mors In Room Overhead.

(Associated Press.)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 16.—An entirely new aspect has been given to the Theresa Mors shooting investigation, police announced today, by the testimony of a woman who says she heard and saw two men fleeing from the apartment occupied by Mrs. Mors and Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist, a few minutes after the shooting was heard that ended the life of the wealthy divorcee early Wednesday morning.

The new witness, police say, lived in the apartment directly under that in which the shooting took place and saw one of the fleeing men so clearly and at such close range that she was able to give detectives a complete description of him.

The testimony of the new witness, Mrs. Iva Martin, is of supreme importance, for two reasons, police point out: First, it fixes the time of the slaying definitely at 12:05 a. m., Wednesday; second, it completely disproves the suicide theory of Mrs. Mors' death.

Mrs. Martin was in bed, she said, when she was awakened suddenly by voices in the apartment above.

"Oh, my God, don't do that," were the first words she heard, she told investigators.

Twice more in anguished tones, these words were repeated.

Pleading Continued.

No reply was heard; only the sounds of a scuffle, and then again a woman's voice pleading.

Finally, said Mrs. Martin, came the last words she heard from the apartment that night: "Oh, my God, don't do that. Oh, this will be terrible," a woman's voice screamed. Then the sharp sound of a shot; a brief silence, the thump of some object falling to the floor; again silence.

The story told by Mrs. Martin is the newest factor in the already tangled case. Mrs. Martin was taken to the apartment house by Detective Captain Cline and there she repeated her story.

Then she was taken to the city jail and to the cell occupied by McCoy. The prisoner was made to walk and to lean against the wall.

Not Positive of Identification.

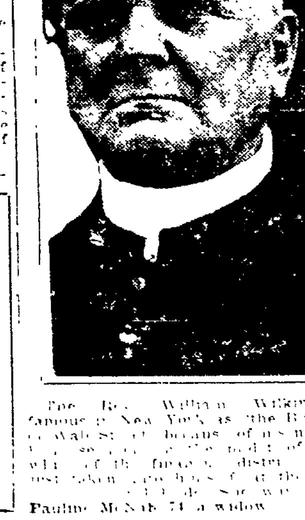

Mrs. Martin was not positive McCoy was not the man she had seen under the window.

McCoy today hod so far recovered from the shock of his arrest last Wednesday on suspicion of murdering Mrs. Mors, divorced wife of a wealthy antique dealer, that he was preparing to write the customary autobiography expected of a person of his past prominence and present predicament.

McCoy contends that Mrs. Mors shot and killed herself, despite his efforts to prevent her.

A coroner's jury yesterday was unable to decide "whether the wound was self inflicted or by some other person with homicidal intent."

The sedan driven by Turley was spun around and crashed against the curbing, facing opposite the direction it was going whne struck. It was badly damaged.

COOLIDGE BEGINS FIRST VACATION SINCE PRESIDENT

Presidential Party Arrives At Plymouth For Rest Of Two Weeks.

Make a Brief Stop Enroute At Resting Place Of Calvin, Jr.

(Associated Press.)

PLYMOUTH, Vt., Aug. 16.—President Coolidge arrived here this morning from Washington for a vacation at his father's home.

With Mrs Coolidge and their son, John, the president began his first vacation as chief executive in the home of his father, where a year ago he took the oath of office.

Swinging off the main gravel road leading to this hamlet, in their motor trip from Ludlow, the family stopped first at the cemetery where a month ago they buried Calvin, jr.

After a brief stop at the grave they proceeded to the Coolidge home, a half mile up the road, where the family was met by John Coolidge, the president's father.

The visit to the cemetery, where is buried the president's mother and sister, was in private, the family standing silently at the graves with bowed heads for a minute.

Around the bend in the road near the Coolidge homestead the townsfolk gathered. These former neighbors of the president who only a few weeks ago comforted him at the funeral services for his son were silent in their welcome, bowing and nodding in return to similar greetings from Mr. Coolidge.

Mr. Coolidge meticulously wiped his shoes on the old rug on the front porch before entering the home. The party had left Ludlow the nearest railroad point quite early and breakfast was waiting when they arrived.

Mr Coolidge had made it plain that he was seeking principally rest and relaxation while here. His stay is planned for two weeks.

Only the most urgent government business will be transmitted to him through the special wire run into the village store here.

MYSTERY GIRL IS LILLIAN M'KINNEY

Young Woman Whose Body Is Found Under Iowa Bridge Is Identified.

Officers Prosecuting Search For Carl Hough, Suspect In Case.

OMAHA, Aug. 16.—Elmer H. McKinney of Herrick, South Dakota, positively indentified the body of the girl found under a bridge near Bedford, Iowa, this week, as his daughter, Lillian, 21, early this morning, a special to the Omaha Bee says.

Search For Hough.

BEDFORD, Ia., Aug. 16.—With their search definitely directed to a single suspect—Carl Hough, a former convict—and with Hough's apprehension believed to be a matter of hours, police today predicted an early solution of the supposed slaying of Miss Lillian McKinney, of Herrick, South Dakota, whose body was found under a highway bridge near here last Wednesday.

Search for Hough is being centered round Oakland, Iowa, his former home, where he is believed to hve been yesterday. oHugh and a girl who is said was his wife, and whose description tallies with that of the dead girl, visited his mother at Oakland on Sunday night. His mother, however, declared that she had not seen her son since that time.

The authorities began their hunt for Hough when a farmer and a New Market, Iowa, gasoline dealer identified a picture of him as the man who Tuesday morning gave a suitcase containing a woman's clothing in exchange for gasoline, and who asked for eggs and milk at a farm house to use as an emetic for liquor poisoning.

Helen Wills Retains Title, Beating Molla

(Associated Press.)

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Miss Helen Wills of Berkley, Cal., successfully defended her title as woman's champion today, crushing Mrs. Molla B. Mallory of New York, 6-1, 6-3, in the final match of the national tournament.

It was the second successive year Miss Wills has vanquished her veteran rival for the title and while Mrs. Mallory won one more game today than she did a year ago from the young titleholder, she was beaten even more convincingly.

But for a streak of wildness in the seventh and eighth games of the final set, Miss Wills would have scored in even more overwhelming fashion.

Anoher hour after her singles triumph Miss Wills returned to the courts and with Mrs. George W. Wightman of Boston, with whom she holds the Olympic championship, won a stirring semi-finals doubles match from Mrs. T. Horace Dudley and Miss Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles, 9-7, 6-1.

They will oppose Miss Eleanor Goss of New York, and Mrs. Marion Z. Jessup of Wilmington, Del. in the finals later this afternoon.

Boys' Pony Cart Struck By a Car

(Special to The Star.)

DE WITT, Neb., Aug. 16.—When Tom Waldo and Cecil Badman ten year old boys of well known De Witt families, were driving a pony and a small cart, selling roasting ears about the residence section here Friday, they were run into by an automobile belonging to Dr. W. M. Barnby, and driven by Mrs. Barnby. The cart was passing the entrance to the alleyway from where the auto was being driven out of the garage. The auto was traveling slowly and was stopped within a few feet, but the cart was demolished and the boys and a load of corn dumped out. The Waldo boy was rolled in front of the auto wheels and severe scalp and body bruises resulted and several stitches were necessary to close the wounds. The pony took fright and ran away.

ARREST TWO FOR MURDER AT OGALLALA

Alex Swankowski Said To Have Told of Killing of John Jefferies and To Have Involved Others.

OGALLALA, Neb., Aug. 16.—A man named Shaffer and "Dad" Ellis were arrested Friday in connection with the slaying of John Jefferies, whose charred body was found in the ruins of his home March 12.

Their arrest, the former at Cheyenne and the latter at Falls City, followed the statement of Alex Swankowski, held on a murder charge in connection with the case, who was arrested Thursday and grilled at North Platte by detectives and state agents.

He said there had been drinking and gambling going on at Jefferies' home.

State Officers Work.

The arrests of Shaffer, Ellis and Swankowski were made after the state law enforcement operatives obtained a sworn statement from Swankowski giving the details of incidents leading to Jefferies' death, according to State Sheriff Tom Carroll.

First degree murder charges have been filed in district court at Ogallala by County Attorney L. A. DeVoe, against Ellis, Shaffer and Swankowski, State Sheriff Tom Carroll said.

Details given out Saturday morning by Carroll in connection with the arrest of the three men include the statement by Swankowski, which was given after several hours of grilling at the hands of Tom Carroll at North Platte Thursday night.

Grilled By Carroll.

In this statement Swankowski told a story of a liquor and card party held at the home of Jefferies atOgallala the night of March 12 which ended in aquarrel and the killing of Jefferies, Carroll said.

Swankowski admitted that he had been with Jefferies during the afternoon and evening. They had been drinking heavily and about 11 o'clock that night Swankowski started for home. As he was leaving the place two men, "Barty" Shaffer and Duncan Ellis, drove up in an automobile. They asked Swankowski to stay as they were going to have a party, Carroll said.

All three went into the house and began drinking liquor. Swankowski said that he went to sleep on a couch while Shaffer, Ellis and Jefferies played cards. Later he was awakened by loud voices and found the other men quarrelling. One of the men struck Jefferies on the head with a revolver. Then Swankowski said he left the house and went to his own home. He told Carroll that then Shaffer and Ellis set fire to the house to cover up the crime.

OLD CAR PARADE STARTS ROUNDUP

American Legion Stages Annual Affair In Havelock City Park.

Two Parachute Drops By Lincoln Men As Part Of Airplane Stunts.

American eLgion men brought out a hundred aged cars, an airplane and a stunt flier, bands, athletes and refreshments, then started to Havelock Saturday afternoon for their nnual roundup.

The old car parade left about 2 o'clock from the Lincoln chamber of commerce building. A picnic dinner was served and an exhibition of stunt flying given during the noon hour at the Havelock grounds.

Ralph E. Anderson, a Lincoln man with seven years of flying experience who once was army instructor in combat and aerobatic flying, shot his plane through a series of aerial stunts.

Two parachute drops will be made by Lincoln men from this plane this evening. W. L. Valley and Coral Sherwood, both ex-ervice men, are to go up with Anderson between his spells of stunts flying, crawl out on one wing of the plane, and slide off.

Ten dealers and many others entered antiques in the old car parade in charge of Trev Gillaspie and Marcus Poteet. All cars were required to make the Havelock journey under their own power. A drum corps and a band accompanied their efforts at locomotion.

Auto companies which entered cars were the Nebraska Buick, O'Shea Rogers, Kimball Motor, Overland, Card-Adams, W. F. Hitchcock, Oldsmobile, Cadillac, J. H. Markel and Chal-Max Motor corporation.

On the arrival of these cars at the Havelock city park about 2:30, judges were to be ready to make awards for age, respectability, disrespectability, rattles, and other qualities peculiar to aged automobiles.

The roundup is to last till midnight, when the dance orchestra will stop. Games, more airplane flying, a picnic supper, and athletics will take place in the mean time.

Earl Cline was to give the address of the day at 4 o'clock.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—(A. P.)—The German nationalist party, without waiting for news of the latest developments from the London conference, tonight published a declaration announcing its rejection of the results of the conference and asserting that compromise which appears to have the consent of the German delegation contradicts on most important points of honor the demand drawn up by the German national reichstag party.

Considers Legal Move To Save Pair From Death

If the Nebraska supreme court should refuse a rehearing to Leroy Mauiron and Sol Wesley, Omaha negroes condemned to suffer death by electrocution on September 26 for the crime of murder, procedure may be taken by their colored attorney, John Adams, similar to that followed in the case of Walter R. Simmons which has brought him a series of reprieves from the governor while his demand to have the death penalty set aside is pending before the United States supreme court at Washington.

Attorney Adams called at the supreme court clerk's office Saturday morning and obtained a copy of the brief which Simmons' attorneys filed before that tribunal when they were seeking a rehearing at its hands. He expects to submit his motion for a rehearing in the near future, so that it may be brought before the court at its first September sitting if the judges are willing to entertain it.

FIFTH VICTIM IS SOUGHT IN M'COY SHOOTING TANGLE

Former Pugilist's Sister Tells More of "Kid's" Confession.

Authorities Allege That Fighter Admitted He Killed Man Also.

(Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES Aug 16—Search for a possible fifth victim of the Mors McCoy shooting tangle was carried on last night by the district attorney's investigators as the result of new information imparted by McCoy's sister said the Los Angeles Examiner in a copyrighted article

The first account by his sister Mrs Thomas of McCoy's alleged confession at her home early Wednesday morning soon after the death of Mrs Mors was to the effect that the former pugilist said

I just had to kill that woman

In amplifying her statement Friday she said she had replied to her brother's startling announcement with

Did you kill the man too?

Yes I got him too McCoy answered the Examiner quotes Mrs Thomas as saying

Mrs Thomas explained that she assumed McCoy meant Mors and that until Mors was found by police unharmed the idea that both he and his wife had been killed persisted in her mind

District Attorney Puzzled

What the district attorney was anxious to establish was the identity of the man of whom McCoy said Yes I got him too and the whereabouts of that man or his body

McCoy told police several hours after his arrest that when he visited his sister he was under the sway of a mad desire to kill Mors who caused it all and several other persons and finally himself Officers therefore pointed out that McCoy too may have been thinking of Mors when his sister asked did you kill the man too?

In that case his Yes I got him too might have meant simply that he sure Mors could not escape him

As a matter of fact when McCoy called at Mors home an hour or two later expecting according to his own story to kill the man the intended victim happened to be out

Arrangements for the disposition of the body of Mrs Mors had not yet been made last night but it was understood the woman's former husband would release it to her mother Mrs Clara Weinstein of New York

Alienist Declares Leopold and Loeb Displayed Normal Emotions.

(Associated Press)

CHICAGO Aug 16—Grim determination pervading the proceedings the prosecution Friday produced two stern faced unsmiling experts who ... in diametric opposition to conclusions set forth by four alienists for the defense that Richard Loeb and Nathan F Leopold jr were mentally sick when they kidnaped and murdered Robert Franks last May 21

Dr Rollin T Woodyatt of Chicago who qualified as an expert on endocrinology challenged the report of findings of functional disorders of the endocrin systems of Leopold and Loeb and Dr H Douglas Singer a mental pathologist testified that phantasies are normal and that he had marked displays of normal emotions on the part of the two youthful defendants

Dr Woodyatt refused to be budged on cross examination from his statements in favor of the prosecution The defense got no opportunity to attempt to prove error in Dr Singer's conclusions that both youths were sane and the hearing was adjourned upon conclusion of his direct examination He will undergo cross questioning by Clarence S Darrow chief of defense counsel at the two hour holiday session today

Dr Singer was permitted to take into consideration all the evidence previously presented excepting expressions of opinion In stating his conclusions No evidence of mental disease ended his replies to hypothetical questions involving each defendant

The courtroom demeanor of Loeb and Leopold was turned against them in Dr Singer's analysis of what he termed their normal emotional lives He asserted that the carefree laughing attitude borne at the inception of the twenty two day old hearing lately had been dropped for a serious worried appearance with Leopold particularly displaying concern

VETERAN RAILWAY AGENT PENSIONED

F. B. Wade With Union Pacific For Thirty-three Years.

Retires From Active Service and Removes To Lincoln to Live.

(Special to The Star)

BLUE SPRINGS, Neb., Aug. 16.—F. B. Wade, Union Pacific railway station agent at this place for the past eighteen years, has been retired on pension by the road, on account of physical disability, after serving thirty-three consecutive years for the company.

He retires this week at the age of 69, and, while still able to do a strenuous day's work, it was felt that the continued responsibilities of the work in his office and the railway accounts were detrimental to his weakened health, and that he had well earned the coming rest and recreation.

He learned telegraphy in Ohio in 1870, while a young man still living with his parents, but he did not enthuse over the crude methods of railroading at that time, and came west with his parents, settling on a homestead near what is now Franklin, Neb., in 1873. He states that Indians were very common in that part of Nebraska at that time.

After nine years developing prairie lands, Wade came to Beatrice and worked at various position. In 1889 and 1890 he served on the Beatrice Express, the first daily of the town, being in charge of carriers and collections, and was instrumental in building up the early subscription of the paper.

In the spring of 1891 he began his railway career by accepting employment as night operator for the Union Pacific at Beatrice. He has continued to the present time with that railway, and all of his service has been on the Lincoln-Manhattan line.

In 1892 he was appointed regular station agent at Barneston, where he remained nine years. From Barneston he was transferred to Randolph, Kansas, in 1901, and served at that station for two years, transferring in 1903 to Holmesville, and in 1906 to Blue Springs, from which position he now retires, having served as agent here for the past eighteen years.

During the past ten years he has had no vacations or pleasure trips, never being any hand to shirk duty, and in his whole career he counts but three short lay-offs, one of the six days in 1898, when he attended the Trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha, one of three weeks in 1903 going to Colorado, and one of three weeks in 1914, going to California. In the entire thirty-three years he has never had a month that he did not draw a pay check. He has saved part of his salary and owns a modest home at Blue Springs, runs his own auto, and owns other property. He states that he has had no corrections on his station records from the railway auditor during his last year of service, and, while he has been criticized at times for some things that he has done, he has never in the thirty-three years been called "on the carpet" by his superintendent.

Wife his wife he will spend the remaining days at a home purchased at 2992 Orchard street, Lincoln. His children are, C. B. Wade, of the Nebraska Printing Co., of Lincoln; E. H. Wade, of the U. E. Auto Supply Co., Atchison; Mrs. Lewis near Holmesville; Mrs. Russel Delair, near Oketo; Mrs. Gertrude Hymer, of Omaha, and two unmarried daughters of Lincoln.

HOW THIS WOMAN GOT STRENGTH

Put Up 300 Quarts Fruit, 500 Glasses Jelly and Took Care of Four Children

Norwalk, Ia.—"I have been meaning for some time to write and tell you how much good your medicine has done me. When I started to take it I was almost bed fast and would have been in bed all the time if I had had any one to care for my children. There was so much swelling and pain that I could hardly take a step. I took seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and found that so healing. I am not entirely well yet for I was in bad shape when I started your medicine, but I am so much better that I am not afraid to recommend it, and I think if I keep on taking it, it will cure me. I have done my work all alone this summer, caring for four children, and I canned 300 quarts of fruit and made 500 glasses of jelly, so you see I must be better. I feel pretty good all the time and I am glad to tell others about the medicine."—Mrs. C. J. WENNERMARK, Box 141, Norwalk, Iowa.

Women can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A TIMID LEADER.

In politics, Calvin Coolidge is a timid man.

As the campaign progresses, that fact will become increasingly apparent to the American people. It may result in his defeat for re-election.

Much has been written in the last few months concerning Mr. Coolidge's courage. He has deservedly received warm commendation for his efforts to lighten the burden of taxation. It has been said that he is stronger than his party. There can be little question of that. The La Follette movement, with its recognized strength, is evidence of how defunct the republican party is nationally. But the question of Mr. Coolidge's strength is still debatable ground. He came by his nomination without serious contest because of the confusion and disorganization which exists in his own party. After the Fall and Daugherty investigations, there was no outstanding figure in the republican forces to take command. "Hi" Johnson did not have the confidence of those whose faith had been shaken. Mr. Coolidge was alone in the field.

And, so it happened that the president swept through the field, with evidences of strength, which gave him support because there was nothing else it could do.

A critical analysis of the record since Mr. Coolidge was called to the presidency reveals that the president has been courageous only in a negative sense. He wielded the veto vigorously. He disapproved the Bursum pension act. He refused to sign the soldiers' bonus. He voiced objection to the immigration bill, and threw himself into the fight over the tax measure. He lost when the congress passed the bonus over his head. The immigration law carried the section which had aroused his opposition. A democratic senator drafted the tax measure which was finally passed, and which contained provisions in direct variance with Mr. Coolidge's views. In other words, even in a negative sense, the president was lacking in the elements of leadership so completely that he failed in all but one of his fights. Back of those defeats is the story of timidity—the unwillingness to depart from traditional and conventional paths.

In an affirmative sense, the president's record is even more dismal.

The one measure which enlisted his aggressive support was the Mellon bill. Its fate has already been told. He professed faith in the Harding proposal for a world court. The congressional leaders in his own party killed it when Senator Pepper brought forward his inane resolution on the subject. Another resolution by Senator Swanson, a democrat, embodying the Harding resolution, was permitted to die in a committee, whose membership included nine republicans and six democrats. Every democrat supported the resolution which the president favored.

No president, with a majority in both branches of congress, has ever been played with, as the last congress played with Mr. Coolidge.

It is not entirely a matter of personality. True, Mr. Coolidge, inspires few warm friendships. He is too retiring, too cold, too aloof—to enlist the warm confidence of men. But Mr. Coolidge's failure at leadership is due largely to his timidity in action; his fear of upsetting tradition; his inability to arrive at a decision.

Months ago Dr. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard sensed Mr. Coolidge's weakness, and, contributed a remarkable article in a prominent magazine.

Then came the oil investigation to furnish conclusive evidence of this timidity and lack of decision. oFr days the president groped blindly, until congress finally took command and forced him to act. No man of decision would have blundered as Mr. Coolidge blundered in the Teapot Dome issue. Had the president acted quickly and decisively, the republican leaders in congress would have left Denby's case to Mr. Coolidge. Had the president been anything but timid and indecisive, the republican leaders in congress would have permitted Mr. Coolidge to have handled Mr. Daugherty without embarassing the administration.

This country most urgently needs leadership. It cannot expect leadership from Mr. Coolidge.

CANADIAN WHEAT EXPORTS.

Except for those directly interested in the grain business, and its allied industries, the American people have generally given little thought to crop conditions prevailing in other countries. If the great agricultural states reported big yields of wheat, corn and oats, and the other crops common to the section were abundant—that settled it. The average man and the average woman visioned prosperous times ahead.

About a month ago the price of wheat scored a remarkable advance. It has been climbing steadily ufttil the last few days, and a still higher price is expected. America is told that the Canadian crop is short and that drouth conditions in Russia make it practically certain that vast quantities of wheat must needs be imported by the soviet country if famine conditions are averted. A year ago the soviet government exported a small amount of wheat. The Canadian crop is expected to be only half as large as it was a year ago. Wheat promises to reach a price it has not touched since the early stages of the deflation perled.

It is America's good fortune to have raised an excellent crop of wheat. In this state, for instance, with a decreased acreage, the yield promises to approximate the record figures, and the grain is all of excellent quality. Thirty to forty bushels of wheat per acre has not been uncommon and some fields had yielded as much as fifty bushels to the acre.

America has an opportunity to visualize her economic relationship to the rest of the world in footing up the value of her wheat crop. Between the months of October 1, 1923 and July 1, 1924, Canada exported wheat at the rate of a million bushels a day. Those shipments represented the surplus from the 1923 crop. During the period mentioned, the Dominion exported 260,000,000 bushels of grain. In May alone 41,000,000 bushels of 1923 wheat was shipped out of Canada, 3,431,000 bushels of it coming to the United States for milling purposes. The Canadian crop this year is estimated to be 200,000,000 bushels smaller than a year ago. The crop may even fall short by 250,000,000 bushels of equalling the record set a year ago, or as was exported from last October until July of this year. That is why the prices of wheat jumped upward in this country. Canada can export but a small part of the amount of grain which she shipped out of the country after the harvest of 1923. The world must look elsewhere for its wheat, and every bushel raised in the United States becomes that much more valuable.

A PAYING INVESTMENT.

The vast expenditures which America made in the Philippines for humanitarian purposes have proved a good investment.

They are coming back to the United States in the form of trade. The Philippines are this country's best customers in the Far East. The Islands now use every year the output of 200,000 acres of American wheat, 86,000 acres of American cotton and 3,850 acres of American apples. They take vast quantities of the dairy produce of this country. The principal reason for rapidly increasing American exports in the Far East is found in the fact that the Philippines buy 90 per cent of all of their exports from this country.

The needs of the Islands have increased each year as the half civilized tribes in the interior adapted the habits of living of more cultured peoples. It required very little to satisfy the desires of the natives until the schools and colleges had given them new tastes and new ambition.

In another way the Islands promise to reward America richly.

They offer an unlimited field for development of the crude rubber industry. America is the largest user of rubber in the world. Nearly 70 per cent of the world's total output was consumed in this country a year ago. But the British government controls the rubber supply and it cost America nearly $150,000,000 last year because of the excessive prices imposed.

In the island of Mindanao, governmental experts have reported, are vast stretches of soil the equal or superior of rubber growing lands under British control. It is proposed that the United States shall develop these idle and uncultivated lands. American interests cannot secure holdings in excess of 2,500 acres, owing to legislative restrictions, but it is entirely feasible for American capital to provide the incentive for native development.

Still we can't convince ourselves that it takes as much wind to keep the ship of state going as some of these politicians see mto believe.

One cant help having a few shivers of fear when looking back on his youthful air-castles since this Leopold-Loeb trial.

There is no doubt about our own sanity but we are beginning to suspect everyone else since these alienists hove into sight.

In these days of the modern flapper it would seem that the eternal triangle should take the form of an octagon.

It is an eternal puzzle why other people are never able to control their horrid children.

The Hospital Business.

When you go to the hospital, you get your money's worth—and then some.

Study of the dollars-and-cents side of the hospital business shows that the ordinary kind of hospital, such as most cities and towns now have, renders exceptional service to patients at low prices. That, perhaps, is one reason why more and more people are going to hospitals when they are sick instead of staying in bed at home or in a hotel.

Consider a group of fifty-six eastern hospitals which recently turned in their annual financial statement for last year. The figures show that this group of hospitals collected only 65 per cent of their total income from the patients. Imagine a chain of fifty-six hotels operating on that kind of a basis!

Hospital expenses have greatly increased during the last ten years. Not all of this increase is due to the prevalent advances in prices, much of the increases being caused by the numerous improvements in the service rendered. Well-run hospitals have matters so arranged now-a-days that it is almost a pleasure to be sick.

It's a fine thing that hospitals are working along efficient lines to make themselves attractive. The more attractive they become the more people will flock to the hospitals in time of illness.

If you haven't yet found out that a hospital is the ideal place for a sick person, try one the next time you're laid up for a few days. You'll be established in a spick and span room. You'll be attended by trained nurses. Your food will be properly selected, properly cooked, and properly served. And best of all, the bill will be reasonable.

There is no sense in throwing your home and your family all out of routine during a sickness if adequate hospital facilities are at hand. You'll get well sooner, more pleasantly, and less expensively in the average hospital than you will in your home. Try it the next time and see.

Questions and Answers.

Your questions on health topics will be answered by Dr. Dorothy Becker if you address her in care of this newspaper.

D. S. C.—Since my baby was born a year ago I have become very fat. This seems odd because I have not much of an appetite and I do all of my own housework. Please tell me what to do to reduce.

Answer—A slight glandular disturbance often occurs after childbirth and I think just a little special gland medication supervised by a physician who does this kind of work will bring you back to your normal weight.

FREAR BITTERLY CRITICIZES BOTH MAJOR PARTIES

Wisconsin Representative Addresses Iowa State Progressive Convention.

Says Main Issue Is Overthrow Of Influence Exerted By "Big Business.

(Associated Press.)

DES MOINES, Aug. 16.—Representative James A. Frear, Hudson, Wis., of the tenth Wisconsin congressional district, in an address prepared for delivery today before the Iowa state progressive convention, declared that the republican and democratic presidential candidate represent respectively the banking houses of Mellon and Morgan. No choice is offered between them, he said.

The issue in the campaign, Mr. Frear asserted, is neither partisan nor political, but for the overthrow of the influence of big business in governmental affairs. He called Senators La Follette of Wisconsin, and Wheeler of Montana, candidates respectively for president and vice-president of the Conference for Progressive Political Action, "a protest against Mellon and Morgan; a protest against the power of special privilege over the Washington government.

"No denunciation or party recrimination is needed in 1924," he continued. "What the voters want to know is what party and what principle is best able to represent his or her views.

"William J. Bryan, three times democratic leader, denounced Davis, the democratic nominee, in New York because Bryan said Davis has ever been ruled by and is the candidate of the house of Morgan. Confirming Mr. Bryan's judgment, the big business journals of the country have pronounced Davis eminently satisfactory to them.

"Teapot Domes are ant hills compared with this record or the house of Mellon that includes tax refunds of over half billion dollars by the present secretary—all refunded in secret," Mr. Frear said.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Departure from Reykjavik of the American army airplanes flying around the world may be delayed indefinitely to await improved conditions, it was indicated by a message from Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, flight commander, received today by Major General Patrick, chief of the air service.

The message, dated yesterday, told of new delays due to ice and other circumstances and said: "Will leave here as soon as practicable."

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 15.—(Delayed)—The boats from the American world fliers' supply ship at Angmagsalik, Greenland, failed to get through the ice to the new landing place fifteen miles distant, this (Friday) afternoon. The only hope of the aviators starting on their hop to Greenland tomorrow lies in the ice conditions becoming better immediately and the boats succeeding in another attempt tonight, but this is considered unlikely.

WIT AND WORD BATTLE MARKS FRANKS HEARING

Darrow, Crowe And Alienist Spend Part Of Saturday Session Wrangling.

Completion Of Evidence Of Both Sides Expected Early Next Week.

(Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The Franks hearing today developed into a two hour wit and word battle between Clarence S. Darrow, chief of defense counsel, and Dr. H. D. Singer, the state's fourth alienist, with Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, and Mr. Darrow also wrangling.

The chief gains for the defene were admissions by Dr. Singer that he had asked Nathan F. Leopold and Richard Loeb, kidnapers-murderers of Robert Franks, no questions and that his conclusions that they were sane were based on observation only, that the youths' present age is the critical time for developing "mental sickness," and that a "split personality" might be evidence toward "mental disorder."

A report by James Quinlan, attorney and investigator for the defense, indicating that in 340 murder cases in Illinois in the past ten years in which pleas of guilty were entered, but one man, Thomas Fitzgerald, setenced by Mr. Crowe when he was chief jutice, had been hanged, was admitted as evidence.

The report was designed to further the defense pleas for penitentiary sentences for Loeb and Leopold instead of the gallows, by showing no minor had been hanged in ten years on a plea of guilty, Fitzgerald being nearly forty years old.

Dr. Singer's cross examination will be continued Monday with only one witness, Dr. W. O. Krohn, alienist for the state, remaining to be heard before arguments will be started.

THE SECOND MRS. STRONG

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

Copyright, 1924, by Public Ledger Company.

Matthew Strong marries his stenographer, Julie Benton, and when he brings her home after the honeymoon, his daughter Claudia at first wishes herself unpleasant, but later decides to play a more subtle game.

CHAPTER XV.

Defiance.

Julie had not been married a week before she realized that she was nothing more than a figurehead in her husband's home. Carefully, insidiously, Claudia had instilled into the minds of the servants the idea that Julie was not competent to handle them. The result was one that might be naturally expected. Claudia was virtually the head of the house and when it was necessary to consult any one, the servants went to her.

Julie was conscious of the fact that the servants treated her with scarcely veiled insolence. She knew that she ought to assert herself, that she ought to take the reins of government into her own hands, but she was handicapped by the fact that she was ignorant of everything. She had no idea of how to go about ordering things, and yet she was clever enough to realize that Claudia was not taking the burden of management on her own shoulders because of a desire to be kind and helpful, but because she despised her step-mother.

In the meantime, Claudia was doing exactly as she liked. On nights when Matthew did not return from the city until late, she made her own plans, confident that Julie would not dare do anything about it. She was high-handed. She treated her step-mother with scarcely veiled contempt and Julie was forced to spend a great deal of the time alone.

One night at dinner Matthew made a suggestion.

"We must give some kind of a reception to introduce you to society, Julie. You and Claudia can get it up between you. Claudia wil know whom to ask and I'll make arrangements with the caterer."

He smiled at Julie as he spoke, and as his eyes rested on her, he realized with a sense of satisfaction how much better she was looking. Her dress of pale yellow crepe was very becoming. To be sure her manner was slightly subdued, but then he supposed that was natural. Until she became used to the change he could hardly expect her to be different, and he was delighted to see how well she was getting along with Claudia.

"I'm afraid I have been rather selfish," he went on after a moment. "Business has been rather heavy this week, but from now on I'll do better. We'll have dinner in town and take in a show on Saturday, Julie and how about two weeks from Saturday for the reception?"

Claudia nodded eagerly, but Julie was silent. She shrank from meeting her husband's friends, and she was uncertain about what her duties ought to consist of. If only there were someone she could go to for help and advice. If only she dared to assert herself where Claudia was concerned. She knew that Matthew expected her to command respect from her step-daughter. If he knew the truth of things he might even blame her for allowing Claudia to do what she had. And yet, what could she do? Claudia's disdain was bad enough, but her enmity would be worse.

Two nights later, Matthew telephoned from town that he would not be home until the late train. At dinner Claudia appeared in a black lace evening frock cut quite scandalously low. She was evidently going somewhere later, and Julie who eyed her step-daughter from under lowered lashes, felt that she ought to make some attempt to learn Claudia's plans.

"You're going out somewhere?" she began tentatively.

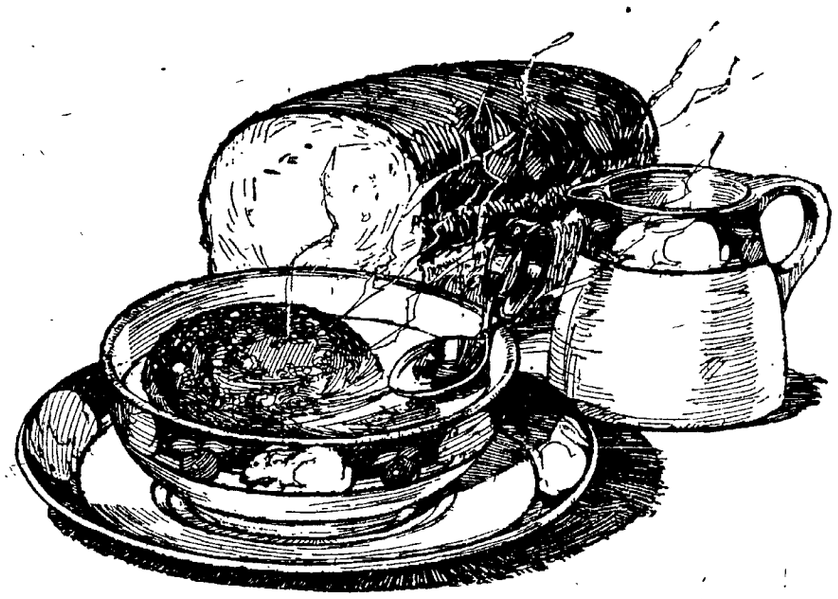

"Yes," Claudia's tone was curt, her eyebrows suddenly arched in surprise.

"Where are you going? Does your father know about it?"

For a moment there was silence, and then Claudia laughed.

"No, he doesn't happen to know about it, but what of it? Had you thought of telling him? Why this sudden concern on your part, Julie? Don't you think it's rather late to begin the mother role with me? I'd advise you to keep your hands off!"

(Monday—Some Plain Facts.)

Select Your Bread Carefully---

OF course, you want to give your family the food that is best for them. You want them to have the right food so that they may all be properly nourished. But possibly you never fully realized the importance of bread in the daily diet.

Bread is your most important food, and as such, should be selected with care. By choosing a loaf such as GOOCH'S BEST you assure your family of the quality of their most vital food. GOOCH'S BEST is a loaf of unsurpassable goodness, made so by the fine, rich ingredients and the scientific skill that go into its making. It will more than satisfy you.

As a money-saving loaf, SQUARE DEAL is unbeatable, and it is genuinely good bread, too. For 12 cents you get 1½ pounds of it—a big, good-eating loaf. If we were to give premiums with SQUARE DEAL it would cost you more. So instead of trying to increase its sale by offering "free" toys and trinkets, we sell it strictly as a big value loaf. There is no pretense about SQUARE DEAL—it's an honest value.

R. Purcell of Broken Bow.

Performers well known in the professional world, some of whom have played before the royal heads of Europe, and others who have enjoyed long runs on Broadway, will appear on the local bill. No expense has been spared by the management in booking this year's attractions, and the program is easily the best one ever engaged here, Mr. Purcell says.

A music program is being worked out which will furnish the performers with the scores needed for their acts, and to fill in the intermissions.

Norton and Bollen On Campaign Stump At Talmage Picnic

J N Norton democratic nominee for governor and F L Bollen candidate for railway commissioner, spoke Friday before a large picnic crowd at Talmadge Mr Norton emphasized the right of farmers to a permanent equalization of prices between what they have to sell and what they must buy instead of being compelled to purchase in a tariff protected market and sell in competition with the whole world

The code system of government, with its tendency toward multiplication of activities and bureaus was held responsible to a great extent for the huge increase in state taxes a few years ago He promised if elected, to continue the policy of tax reduction as practiced by democratic state administrations in the past

Mr Bollen declared that the state railway commission should also be abolished unless it can be made to function in the manner it was originally intended to as the representative of the people of Nebraska in their controversies with common carriers rather than as an impartial court where the corporations are represented by experts and highly paid counsel while the people in many instances have no spokesmen

Redskins From Oklahoma Rampage to Victory In Tenth Inning

LINKS LET DOWN IN FATAL TENTH

Error Hoodoo Horns In and Clarke Clan Drops Game To Indians 7 to 2.

Beck Hurled Brilliantly, But Bungles By Pals Put Him On Losing End.

WESTERN LEAGUE WEATHER.
Oklahoma City at Lincoln; clear.

St. Joseph at Denver; cloudy.
Wichita at Omaha; clear.

BY "CY" SHERMAN.

Holding an even pace with the Oklahoma City Indians during nine sparkling innings Friday, our Links fizzled quite ingloriously in the tenth presented the ball game to the invading redskins, 7 to 2.

Leslie Beck, after a superb exhibition of propelling the Spalding globule, was the victim of the Links' blowup. The count was 2 to 2 at the termination of the ninth. Menze inaugurated the tenth with a clean poke to left, but Felber grounded to Gunther for a made-to-measure double play. Gunther then proceeded to butter-finger the ball and both runners were safe. Chili McDaniel bunted and the usually reliable Antonio Lazzeri bungled, thereby loading the bases.

McNally, a soft mark for Beck on his previous trips to the plate, hoisted a long fly to right and Firpo Bernard misjudged the ball, net result of which was a fluke two-bagger for the batter.

The strain, quite naturally, got on Leslie's nerves and the Lincoln flinger exuded a wild pitch—the final linke in a chain of tragedies which put five Indian runners over the home dish.

Links Easy In Tenth.

Don Songer, southpawing in top form, set the Links down in order in the last slice of the tenth and Manager Josh and his gang were licked 7 to 2—victims of their fourth successive defeat.

The Links peeled off the first run in the opening frame. Eddie Moore lashed a clean single to left and stole second while Pid Purdy was swinging at a third strike. Gunther's infield out, Tate to McDaniel, shoved Moore to third and Firpo Bernard's safe punch to left center counted the run.

Oklahoma City tied it up in the second. McNally vaulted to Firpo, but Beck issued a free ticket to Tate, following which Kahdot, the real Indian of the Oklahoma City tribe, smacked to center, taking two bases when the ball bounced away from Moore. Kahdot's clout put Tate over the plate.

Fluke Hit Scores Menze.

The Indians rambled through to another marker in the third. Beck whacked Menze with a pitched ball and a wild pitch enabled the runner to glide to second. Felber fluked a hit when his grounder bounced over Lazzeri's dome, Menze speeding to third, and when Chili McDaniel lifted a sacrifice fly to Moore in center, Menze oozed home with his run.

Links knotted the count in their share of the third frame. Beck whiffed, but Moore worked Songer for a walk, advanced on Purdy's sacrificial bunt and crossed the plate when Gunther's drooping fly back of second landed on the sward for a safe blow.

During the interval separating the third and the fatal tenth, Beck outpitched Songer. But one Indian runner glided past the first sack. The Links, however, were getting on the bases quite persistently, chiefly by reason of Songer's gifts of first, but three double plays came to the visiting flinger's rescue and pulled him safely out of every crisis. The official record:

THE FANNING BEE.

Southpaw Don Songer had his old Indian sign on the Links. After the third inning, when the Lorce gang counted its second and final run, Songer permitted two safe blows. Purdy singled in the eighth and Cartwright poked to safe territory in the ninth.

Three double plays by the McNally-Kahdot-McDaniel trio made it rather tough for the Links, robbing off promising threats to break into the run column.

A bunch of big league scouts watched Songer do his stuff. Bobby Wallace, scout for the Chicago Cubs, and Chick Fraser, hunting ivory for the Pittsburgh Pirates, have been hanging on Songer's trail for the past two weeks.

Songer was wilder than usual, passing four Lincoln batters to first, but atoning for his generosity by whiffing eight. The five marks in the Links' hit column tell their own story of Songer's effectiveness.

The error jinx was sticking on the trail of the Links, blowing the ball game into the Indians' bag in the tenth. Tate inaugurated the first extra frame with a clean single to left, but Felber's hot bouncer to Gunther had the brandmarks of a setup double play. Gunther's bungle opened the gate to another foozle by Lazzeri in handling McDaniel's bunt. Then came Bernard's misjudgment in chasing McNally's vaulter to right; and before the Links came down from their ascension the Indians had scampered through with five runs and the ball game.

Leslie Beck, Tri-State league graduate, hurled brilliantly. The six hits credited to the Indians prior to the disastrous tenth were scattered through as many innings. Beck was slinging a mean fast ball and a wide-sweeping hook.

Lincoln fans gave Chili McDaniel the hand but pleaded that he stay off the home run stuff. Chili obliged by only once knocking the ball off the diamond although he contributed two sacrifices which factored in the run-making.

Forrest, the Indians' new backstopper, looks like a dangerous socker. His single in the second and double in the ninth were line drives.

Kahdot perpetrated the Indians' lone error—a fumble of Lazzeri's grounder in the fourth. Kahdot's bungle cost nothing, as Cartwright followed by hitting into a double killing.

Songer had Beck's number to the extent of three successive strikeouts. Rasmussen, pinch-hitting for Beck in the tenth, also fanned air.

A one-mitt stop by Chavez of Hock's torrid grounder in the fourth was the most spectacular fielding performance of the afternoon. Chavez handled four putouts and five assists without a skip.

McNally also was a right busy performer, with five putouts and six assists.

The Links slipped a bit and the fans a lot more when Umpire O'Brien allowed the double play on Lazzeri and Cartwright in the fourth. The pests in the pressbox were inclined to doubt that either of the pair was out.

Magnate Jack Holland, still hobbling with a cane, is with the Indians and making his first swing around the circle of the pennant campaign. Early in the season the Oklahoma City club owner was marooned a full month in a hospital following a surgical operation.

The second guess, being the surest suggests that the Links' attacking strategy in the seventh failed in the pinch. Cartwright started the inning with a walk and Chavez bunted. Both were safe when McDaniel's throw to second was too late to head off Cartwright. With two runners on an nobody down, Lamb declined to bunt, but swung into a double play.

How It's Done In the Majors

By Frank Frisch, Captain New York Giants

A right-handed hitter comes to the plate. The signal is given that the pitcher is going to throw him a fast ball.

Where should the shortstop play?

When a fast ball is being pitched to a right-handed hitter, the shortstop should move over toward second base, because right-handed hitters, as a rule do not pull a fast ball a great deal. The position of the shortstop, that is, how far over he comes to second base, depends on the speed of his pitcher. If the pitcher throws a very swift ball, the shortstop moves over a little closer to second base than he would if a slower pitcher were in the box.

HERE AND THERE IN BASEBALL

LINKS AND INDIANS IN SUNDAY DOUBLEHEADER

A double bill of the national pastime is on the book for Sunday afternoon at Landis yard. Performing on the final day of their home stand in a round of games with the southern teams of the Western loop, the Links will mix with the Oklahoma City Indians in two games. The curtain will be hoisted at 2 p. m.

Guy Cooper, top twirler for the Links in the pitching averages, with a record of seven victories and three defeats, is slated to hurl his right-hand slants at the Indians in the first game.

Following the Sunday doubleheader, the Links will head to Des Moines for a stay of four days and then come home for the four-day series with the Omaha Burch Rods, first day of which, Friday, Aug. 22, will be booster day in the Lincoln camp.

Fays Respect to Tearney.

Jack Holland, boss of the Oklahoma City Indians, is outspoken in his opposition to League President Tearney. In fact, the Oklahoma City magnate gives it out cold that he will not attend another league session so long as Tearney sits in the executive chair. Fred Clarke, former pilot of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates and now a prosperous oil magnate and ranch owner in southern Kansas, is the man Holland suggests as successor to Tearney. In Lincoln with his Indians, Holland is ready to go to bat at a moment's notice in declaring his opposition to Tearney.

"The league pays Tearney a good salary," Holland said Friday, "and gets virtually nothing in return. Tearney devotes most of his time to his cabaret business in Chicago. We might better call this the Cabaret league, instead of the Western. I was not surprised when Wakefield blew up early in the season. Tearney picked Wakefield, when he might have had Fred Clarke, and the blame for the mistake belonged on Tearney's shoulders, although he tried to shift the responsibility onto Lincoln.

"Fred Clarke is the man the league should elect as president. Clarke would take it and, more than that, he would give the league his time and talents. This business of having a long-distance president is a blunder. The head of the league should make headquarters in the circuit. Tearney won't do that, which is good enough reason to drop him down and out, although there are numerous additional reasons why the league should rid itself of the Tearney incubus."

Holland isn't tipping his hand as to how it is proposed to vault Tearney over the transom, yet it is no special secret in league circles that a plan is on foot to move league headquarters to Kansas City or some city on the circuit. A move of that sort, voted by the league, would settle the Tearney problem, as the cabaret magnate is glued fast to Chicago. Despite the fact that his five-year term does not expire until after the season of 1926, the anti-Tearney forces figure he would quit in a minute if the league transfers the president's headquarters.

Pitcher Bayne Joins Oilers.

The Tulsa Oilers, five games back of the league-leading Burch Rods, will bear watching during the final drive to the wire. The Tulsa hurling staff has been fortified by the acquisition of Southpaw Bill Bayne, who was due to join the Oilers Friday in Des Moines. Bayne was one of the main spokes of Tulsa's pennant-winning machine four seasons ago, following which he moved up to the St. Louis Browns. The Tulsa club has a drag with the Browns which gives the Oilers something of an advantage. Whenever the Lubricators are in a pinch for playing talent, distress signals are wig-wagged to St. Louis and never fail to get results.

Pirates Crowding Giants.

The New York Giants lead in the fight for the National league pennant stands at four games today as a result of their defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh. The Clan McGraw lost a full game in the standing of the clubs. The Pirates won, 6 to 4.

Chicago, by defeating Philadelphia, 8 to 6, gained a full game on the Giants, but remained three and a half games back of Pittsburgh in second place.

Brooklyn, in fourth place, lost ground when Cincinnati batted Grimes out of the box in the fifth inning and went on to win, 10 to 5.

Uncle Robbie's Brooklyn club is now two full games behind the Cubs in third place and nine and a half games behind the leaders.

With the score tied in the eighth, the St. Louis Cardinals bunched their hits for three runs and beat Boston, 6 to 3.

Tigers Gain on Yankees.

In the American league the Tigers gained a half game on the league-leading Yanks, who remained idle while the Detroit club was administering a 4-3 licking to the Athletics.

The White Sox dropped a full game in the standing of the clubs, but remained in sixth place when Boston made it four in a row, winning a close decision, 6-5 and gaining a full game on the Chicago outfit, but remaining in seventh place, two games in front of the tailend Athletics. No others were scheduled in the American league.

Dutch Leonard to Rescue.

"Dutch" Leonard, who was charged with defeat in the first game he tried to save the other day, was rushed to the hill to save the game of Johnson, who weakened in the ninth inning when the Athletics had the tying run on base. Leonard pulled the game out of the fire, but Johnson was credited with the victory.

Home Runs Win for Cubs.

Barney Friberg and Bob Barrett of the Cubs smashed out home runs against Couch of the Phillies and made it easy for Chicago to defeat Philadelphia, 8 to 6. Sand knocked the first ball pitched by Keen out of the lot and Cy Williams hit for the circuit a little later, running his string of four-baggers to 14 for the season.

TULSA SLUGGERS IN TIE FOR TOP

Lamb and Lelivelt Running Even Up In Pursuit Of Batting Laurels.

Eddie Collins In the Spotlight With Jump to Third Place In Johnson Loop.

Jack Lelivelt, manager of the Tulsa Oilers, and Outfielder Lyman Lamb of Tulsa are in a dead heat for the batting honors of the Western league, with an average of .381. A week ago Lamb was crowning the pill for a mark of .386. Dunning of Wichita, who has been plugging along in third place, has a mark of .377, while Washburn, another Tulsa favorite, who holds the lead as a run-getter with 126 tallies, is tied for fourth place in batting with Miller of St. Joseph. Each is hitting .370.

Smith of Wichita increased his record of stolen bases to 37, while Davis, Tulsa's home run hitter, ran his total of four-baggers to thirty-five.

Other leading batters: Butler, Wichita, .368; O'Brien, Denver, .367; Davis, Tulsa, .353; Cullop, Omaha, .348; Gingrardi, Denver, .346; Felber, Oklahoma City, .346.

Eddie Moore continues to make pace for the Links with a batting average of .328.

Collins In Third Place.

Edward Trowbridge Collins, veteran of nineteen campaigns in the American league, is making a determined bid for the American league honors as its most valuable player for 1924.

Collins, for ten years captain of the Chicago White Sox, today is leading the league in base stealing with 33 thefts and climbed from sixth to third place in batting within a week, going into third position with an average of .346. Babe Ruth, the famous Yankee, still is leading the parade, but dropped to an even 400, with Bib Falk of the White Sox second with .369. Cobb, Heilmann and Speaker advanced in batting with Collins, Cobb easing into fifth place with .344, a point behind Jamieson of Cleveland.

Leads His League In Steals.

Collins led the American league in base-stealing last season with a total of 49, and with the close of the 1924 season nearly two months away hopes to equal, if not surpass, his performance of 1923.

Ruth crashed out two more homers and swelled his circuit drive total to 38. He has maintained an average of scoring better than a run a game, as he has registered 114 times in 113 games. In cracking out 154 hits, the home run king has gone into a triple tie with Cobb and Rice of Washington.

Othre leading batters: Boone, Boston, .342; Goslin, Washington, .337; Heilmann, Detroit, .336; Sheely, Chicago, .335; Speaker, Cleveland, .333.

Cuyler Second to Hornsby.

Hazen Cuyler, a National league youngster playing the outfield with the Pirates, is in second place among the batters and runner-up to Rogers Hornsby, the Cardinal star and champion batter of the league. Cuyler, a former Southern leaguer, is hitting .377, while Hornsby is topping him with .407, a gain of four points over his mark of a week ago.

Cuyler also is giving his teammate, Max Carey, a fight for base-stealing honors. The southern flash has come along with such speed that he has topped Cliff Heathcote of the Cubs, who was runner-up to Carey a week ago. Cuyler has swiped 21 bases, to Heathcote's 20. Carey is leading with twenty-eight.

Frisch First In Runs.

Frankie Frisch of the Giants continues to add to his run record, crossing the plate for a total of 84 tallies. Hornsby increased his total base record to 264, his 165 hits including twenty-nine doubles, eleven triples and sixteen homers.

Jack Fournier, slugging first baseman of the Dodgers, with twenty-three circuit drives, is leading the home run hitters by a safe margin.

Other leading batters: Wheat, Brooklyn, .372; Bressler, Cincinnati, .353; Roush, Cincinnati, .352; Fournier, Brooklyn, .346; Young, New York, .341; Snyder, New York, .324; Frisch, New York, .323; Grigsby, Chicago, .323; Blades, St. Louis, .323.

Denver Fighter Grabs Decision From Socklyn

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 16.—Willie Hope of Denver was awarded the decision over Sid Socklyn of Lincoln, after three fast rounds before the Elks club here last night. The first two rounds were evenly divided, but Hope let loose a barrage of hard rights to the jaw that slowed the Lincoln lad up in the third and won the judges' decision.

Yankee Athletes Win First Honors In Dublin Games

DUBLIN, Aug. 16.—After having added further successes to their achievements of the last day of the Tailtenn games, the American athletes left last night for England. The Americans led in the final scoring with 46 1-2 points. Ireland was next with 13 1-2, while the other contesting countries finished as follows: Australia, 16 points; South Africa, 6; England, 6; Canada, 5; New Zealand, 2; Scotland, 1.

Harold M. Osborne of the Illinois A. C., who sustained a thigh injury Thursday that necessitated his withdrawal from the decathlon with three of his favorite events still to be contested, was a spectator at the games Friday and was given a great ovation. By agreement between Dan Kinsey, also of the Illinois A. C., and Shanahan of Ireland, who were close behind Osborne in the decathlon, the points in the events in which Osborne could not compete were awarded to the American, thus making him the winner. Kinsey agreed that Shanahan be placed second.

"LITTLE BILL" WINS FINALS.

CASINO, NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 16.—William Johnston of San Francisco, several times national champion, today defeated Harvey Snodgrass, a fellow Californian, in the final match of the Casino singles invitation lawn tennis, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

(Associated Press.)

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Miss Helen Wills of Berkeley, Cal., defending champion, and Mrs. Molla B. Mallory of New York will meet in the final round of the women's national tennis championship here today.

The girl from the coast met and dethroned Mrs. Mallory in the final round last year in straight sets and again met and administered a beating to the New Yorker in the Olympic championship.

The champion was forced to the limit in the semi-final round by her sister Californian, Miss Mary K. Browne, who only succumbed after a terrific fight, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Mrs. Mallory had a comparatively easy time defeating Miss Eleanor Goss in their semi-final match, 6-3, 6-3. Mrs. Mallory's powerful driving game proving too much for her tall opponent.

Japs Bow to Anzacs.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 16.—The formidable Australian doubles combination of Gerald L. Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood volleyed into victory in the American zone Davis cup final on the grass courts of the Agawam Hunt club here Friday when Patterson and Wood defeated Sunao Okamoto and Takeichi Harada of Japan, 7-5, 6-2, 6-4. Friday's victory gives the Australians the right to meet the French team, winners of the European zone play in the round before the final challenge round, in which America will defend the cup.

Except for a brief spell in the first set, when the Japanese players seriously threatened their opponents, the Australians had things their own way during the afternoon's play. It was Japanese steadiness versus Australian brilliancy and brilliancy won in the final analysis.

Snodgrass Easy for Johnson.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 16. — A record-breaking gallery saw W. M. Johnston, San Francisco, send Harvey Snodgrass, Los Angeles, down to defeat in three straight sets at the Casino today. The scores were 6-2, 6-2, 6-2.

"Little Bill" played all around Snodgrass. There were scores of pets and outs by each player, but Johnston's placements numbered six times as many as those of Snodgrass, who also made double faults. Snodgrass' shoulder was lame today. The match was a walk-away for Johnston, who was too fast and clever at maneuvering as well as too aggressive for Snodgrass.

INSIDE GOLF

By CHESTER NORTON

Maker of R Golf Champions. "Golf's most successful teacher," says "Chick" Evans

The push shot, which is best made with the midiron but which can also be made with any wood club, yields a low-flying ball that takes great distance against the wind and that stops where it falls without much roll.

To make this shot, with the mid-iron take a square stance, with the ball on a line midway between your feet. This puts your hands slightly in front of the ball by about three inches. Let the blade lie parallel with the shaft, that is—it lies at an angle slightly across the direction line. Swing the club out back and around, with a firm grip. Use a three-quarters back swing. Start the club down and then, when the club is about two-thirds of the way down, stiffen your wrists, forearms and arms and hit by literally chopping your weight forward, I mean, shoot your weight straight toward the hole ahead. Your club does not turn at all. You find it at the finish, about two feet ahead of where the ball rested, with your line of direction. Be careful not to dip your right shoulder at the time you shoot your weight forward.

Tillie Brooke In Record Time On Ohio Track

(Associated Press.)

NORTH RANDALL, Cleveland, O., Aug. 16.—Tillie Brooke, six-year-old mare, by Justice Brooke — Miss Stokes, driven by Thomas Murphy, Syracuse reinsman, very nearly equalled the world's trotting race record to a sulky here Friday where she negotiated the first heat of the 2:05 class trotting in 2:01 2-5. The record, 2:01 1-4, or three-twentieths of a second faster, was established on this track by Hamburg Belle in 1910.

By trotting the second heat in 2:02 1-5, Tillie broke trotted the two fastest heats of the year.

Cupid's Albingen set the pace in the record mile, stepping the first quarter in 30 3-5, the half in one minute flat and the three-quarters in 1:30 3-5. There he was overtaken by Murphy's mount, which stepped the last quarter in 30 3-5 seconds.

By going the third mile of the 2:05 trot in 2:04 2-5, Marmaduke made it the three fastest miles trotted this year. The time for the three heats averaged one-quarter of a second faster than the world's fastest three miles trotted by Peter Manning, in winning the Transylvania stake at Lexington on October 7, 1920. Manning's time was 2:03; 2:03 3-4; 2:02 1-2.
